St. James's, April 26.

THE following Addreſſes being tranſmitted from Ireland by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, were preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Lowth, at the Aſſizes held at Dunkalke.

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and Gentlemen of the County of Catherlagh, at a general Aſſizes held at Carlow.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, the Foreman and many others of the Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Typperary, at a general Aſſizes held at Clonmell.

The humble Addreſs of the Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and Gentlemen of the County of Wexford, at a general Aſſizes held for the ſaid County.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Longford, at a general Aſſizes held for the ſaid County.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of Antrim, at the Aſſizes held at Carrickfergus.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Venice, April 20. N. S. The Magiſtrate of Health has diſpenſed with the Noblemen appointed to guard the Poſts leading to this City, from their Attendance, and it is thought the Quarentine will ſoon be taken off from all Perſons coming out of Germany. Signor Tron, who is appointed to go Ambaſſador to Great Britain, has deferred his Journey for ſome time longer upon his private Affairs. It is ſaid the Electoral Prince of Saxony intends to return to this Place. They write from Rome, that Cardinal Bouillon arrived there on the 17th, and the ſame Day he had an Audience of the Pope, which laſted two Hours. The Employment of Vicario, which was held by the late Cardinal Carpegna, was order'd to be exercis'd by Monſignor Caracciolo, till the Pope thought fit to diſpoſe of it; and in the mean time the Salary, amounting to One thouſand Crowns of Gold a Month, was aſſigned to the Biſhops of Catania and Giorgento, in Sicily.

Hamburgh, May 1. N. S. The Daniſh Troops that were Poſted hereabouts, to prevent the ſpreading of the Contagious Diſtemper, are at length removed from the Neighbourhood of this City, and it is hoped thoſe of Hanover will likewiſe be withdrawn in a ſhort time. The King of Denmark is expected in a Day or two at Gottorp; ſeveral Battalions of his Troops are already upon their March towards the Camp that has been mark'd out for them. Baron Spaar, a Swediſh Lieutenant General, who was formerly employ'd in the Service of France, has been ſeveral times in Conference with Count Welling and the Miniſters of Holſtein at this Place, and is now ſet out for Berlin, in order to make ſome Propoſals to that Court in favour of Sweden and Holſtein: But it is thought he will hardly ſucceed in his Negotiations, ſince the King of Pruſſia has aſſur'd the Emperor's Secretary, that he will engage in no Meaſures, which may occaſion a new War in the Circle of Lower Saxony. All the Miniſters are already arrived at the Congreſs of Brunſwick, except thoſe of the King of Sweden and King Auguſtus, and the latter are expected very ſoon. Letters from Stockholm bring an account, that the States of the Kingdom were ſtill aſſembled, but they intended to ſeparate in a few Days, after having appointed Deputies out of each Order, who are to remain at that Place, to take care of their Intereſts. It was reported, that a Treaty of Marriage was concluded between the Hereditary Prince of Heſſe Caſſel, and the Princeſs Ulrica Eleonora. They write from Petersbourg, that Monſieur Baſſewitz, by the Czar's Command, had receiv'd a Copy of the Letters and Papers found in Tonningen, which he was told, had convinced his Majeſty of the ill Intentions of the Houſe of Holſtein towards the King of Denmark, his Ally, and by conſequence againſt the whole Confederacy, for which reaſon he was ordered to be gone from that Court, without any delay.

Bruſſels, May 1. N. S. The Regency being informed, that the Peſtilential Diſtemper continues ſtill among the Cattle in the United Provinces, have reſolved to publiſh an Edict, ſtrictly forbidding the bringing in of Cattle from thence, in order to prevent the Infection from ſpreading into theſe Countries. Count Clairmont, firſt Member of the Council of State, for the Adminiſtration of the Affairs of the Netherlands, is returned hither from Gand, where he was ſent to demand an extraordinary Subſidy for the Payment of the Walloon Troops aſſign'd on that Province. Monſieur Peſters, the Dutch Intendant at Ipres, is come to this Place, at the requeſt of Monſieur Vandenberg, Deputy of the States General, in order to aſſiſt him at the Conferences held here upon the Affairs of theſe Countries.

Paris, May 5. N. S. Laſt Week Cardinal Guidice was ſeveral hours in private with the King, and it is ſaid his Majeſty then adjuſted the Difficulties which have hitherto delay'd the Concluſion of the Peace between Spain and the States General. All Colonels of Regiments are order'd to repair to their ſeveral Commands by the 15th Inſtant. His Majeſty has conferred the Order of St. Lewis upon Monſieur Contade. The Prince of Georgia's Uncle is arrived in this City: It is ſaid he is come to deſire the King's Protection for his Nephew, who is obliged to pay exceſſive Tribute to the Grand Signior and the Sophi of Perſia for leave to exerciſe the Chriſtian Religion in his Dominions. Yeſterday morning the Duke of Berry died at Marli after a ſhort Indiſpoſition, which it is ſuppoſed was occaſioned by a Blow he received on his Stomach from the Pommel of his Saddle. Upon his Death the King is return'd to Verſailles. They write from Toulon, that the Marquis de Mary was expected there with a Genoeſe Man of War, to convoy four Veſſels, laden with Proviſions for the Siege of Barcelona, to Mataro.
